ABSTRACT

This series of tables presents information about the racial and ethnic distributions of students and staff in New York public schools in the 1992-93 school year. Specific attention is paid to Black and Hispanic American students and teachers. Information is listed as percent distributions by racial and ethnic origin, by school district within counties, and for the state as a whole. In some cases, statistics are given for the five largest cities of the state (Buffalo, New York City, Rochester, Syracuse, and Yonkers) and for the Boards of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES).
